Radio Thursday - In the Kitchen & going away! January 10, 2008

Now that I have helped Kristen out I need to mention a few goodies that I will be taking on my trip today!!! They were just too cute to miss! I will be flying...I would never use the blankets that they give you on the plane - YUCK! Here are two that I love!

- Plane Comfort - This is an all in one travel comfort kit. The handy tote bag holds a micro fleece blanket, an inflatable pillow, and a handy luggage finder. This super cute bag comes in wild colors (like pink and zebra) and basic colors (red, blue, etc). I think this tote will find a permanent spot in my car when I am not traveling. How many times do you wish you had brought a blanket somewhere? Everyone should own one of these!
