Planecomfort All-in-One Travel Comfort Kit - Review & Giveaway

Thrifty Jinxy's Holiday Gift Guide & Giveaway

The Planecomfort All-in-One Travel Comfort Kit is a great gift for not only the traveler on your list, but for anyone who likes to be out and about. Planecomfort is an all-in-one blanket, pillow and pillowcase that is self-contained and easy to carry with a shoulder strap - or you can use the strap to attach it to your carry-on luggage. It even has an outside zippered pocket to store personal items. It's great for use on planes, at the beach, sporting events, sleepovers, camping and more.

I think the Planecomfort is a fantastic idea. I always like to snuggle up on a long flight, but hate to think how many other people have been snuggling up with that same airplane pillow and blanket before me. I'll be very happy to have my own set on my next flight!! I was very surprised by how soft the Planecomfort blanket is. The pillow is easy to inflate and good-sized, about 9" x 13". Once you put the pillow in the case, it has a cozy fleece side for you to rest your head and the nylon side goes on the bottom, helping with the cleanliness factor.

To top it off, Planecomfort is made to last. The fleece stays soft with every washing and the nylon tote is not only durable but water resistant, keeping your pillow and blanket dry - no matter what kind of storm you are running through. The product is guaranteed 100%.

The Planecomfort All-in-One Travel Comfort Kit is available at www.planecomfort.net for $29.99. Now through January 5, 2009 you can get FREE shipping on any order
